Mrs. Nation Not Even Permitted to Talk in the Jail-Worn Out and Forced to Take a Turkish Bath.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.-Mrs. Carrie Nation left Chicago for Topeka to-night. She is under bonds to appear in the Kansas capital to-morrow for trial in connection with her operations in that city. Before leaving Chicago she announced that as soon as she had "cleaned up things" at home she would come back here, and if things were not properly taken care of by the authorities she and her friends would take matters into their own hands, and, to use her own expression, "We will make souvenirs." Her advice to-day during her so-called lecture was to "Smash!" "Smash!" "Smash!"

Her meeting with the saloon keepers, which she announced that she would carry out, did not materialize, and in default of having them for an audience she went once more to the saloon at 200 State street, which she visited last night, and in which her grandson is manager, and delivered a talk to the people she found there. It was a motley throng, embracing all classes. Mrs. Nation mounted a table, and for fifteen minutes talked with great energy, urging her hearers to abandon both the use and sale of liquor and denouncing in the most unmeasured terms all those who permitted its sale anywhere in the city. As she left the place she went up to a woman who possessed a rich black eye and remarked:

CHICAGO, Feb. 13 .- Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas "smasher," was rebuffed by Mayor Harrison and Chief of Police Kipley to-day. Both kept out of her way, al-

When informed of Mrs. Nation's intention or visiting him Mayor Harrison said: "I will not see Mrs. Nation I don't understand that the Kansas 'joint smasher' has anything of interest to the city of Chicago to impart, and inasmuch as I am a very busy man I den't see my way clear to listen to her. About 1,500 people, a large majority of them women, were crowded into the little auditorium of Willard Hall when Mrs. Nation, escorted by several local W. C. T. U. leaders, pushed her way down the aisle to the platform. So great was the crush, in fact, that the meeting was hastily adjourned after Mrs. Nation and one or two others had spoken. Many women crushed in the struggling mob around the door fainted and were taken out with great difficulty. Cheers and applause greeted Mrs. Nation as the latter stepped on the platform and untied her bonnet strings. "Speech!" "Speech!" shouted the assem-

They love to talk, but it is not in their hearts to work, to work in the slums.

"I could open the jail doors, I could smash every saloon in town if I had you," said Mrs. Nation, extending her arms towards the audience. "We could clean this town, and instead of sorrow and tears, drunkenness, the walls of homeless chil dren, we could have joy and gladness and happy homes. Senator Frye, president pro tem. of the Senate, ascended the rostrum and took his place at the right of Speaker Henderson to preside over the joint session. Ex-Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson presided over the joint session when the electoral vote was counted four years ago. Immediately below Speaker Henderson and Senator Frye at the clerk's desk, were the tellers of the two houses, Senators Chandler, of New Hampshire, and Caffery, of Louisiana, and Representatives Grosvenor, of Ohio, and Richardson, of Tennessee, flanked on either hand by the secretary of the Senate, Mr. Bennett, and the clerk of the House, Mr. McDowell. Still below them, on the floor, the other officers of the House and Senate ranged themselves in the front of the marble rostrum.

Senator Frye rapped for order when all were seated. FOUR REGIMENTS READY.

Governor Nash Is Prepared to Rush a Small Army to Cincinnati.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 13 .- Notwithstanding all arrangements have been perfected for sending troops to Cincinnati to prevent the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight, there is a prevailing belief among those most conversant with the situation that there will be no necessity for sending troops. Governor Nash talks most reservedly of his plans and the information conveyed to him from Cincinnati. State officials freely express the opinion that the evidence adduced from the trial at Cincinnati is sufficient to warrant the court granting an injunction against the Sanengerfest Athletic Association and the principals in the proposed fight. There is an intimation also that Governor Nash has received assurance from the athletic association that in view of his determination to prevent the fight no effort will be made to bring it off, even though the decision of the court should be favorable to them. Governor Nash would neither affirm nor deny the rumor. As the situation stands to-night, four regiments of infantry and a battery of artillery are under orders to proceed to Cincinnati under direction of the Governor. These troops are: Second Regiment, Col. J. I. Ream, Lima; Third Regiment, Col. Harry E. Mead, Dayton; Sixth Regiment, Col. Sanford Stanberry, Toledo; Eighth egiment, Col. Edward Vollrath, Bucyrus; Battery H, Captain H. M. Bush, Columbus An adequate supply of loaded ammunition has been issued to these regiments, and in event of a call the men will report in heavy marching order with shelter tents. The troops will be mobilized at convenient points and proceed by the shortest routes to Cincinnati. Should the Governor order out the troops none of them will move before to-morrow afternoon or evening.

There were no serious disturbances in Madrid early to-day, but the attitude of the masses showed that grave disorders might break out at any time. The festivities in the palace continued last night and today. To-morrow the Princess of Asturias and Prince Charles of Bourbon will be married. What may happen after that is not known, but the authorities are taking every precaution. To-day was to be a pubiic holiday, with music in the public square, but the sullenness of the people and the threats of the anti-Jesuits caused the declaring off of all outdoor festivities. The wedding will take place in the royal chapel to-morrow, all arrangements having been completed to-day. Although quiet prevailed pare of the day; with nightfall every approach to the Puerta Del Sol, in Madrid, was jammed with the idle populace. Insulting remarks were hurled at the police and the civil guards. A trumpeter sounded a charge, which was made with swords drawn. Heads were not spared, many persons were injured and there were numerous arrests. The scattering crowds sought the shops and hotels. All the front doors of the Hotel De Paris were smashed in, and a great crowd assembled there. The police and guards charged into the streets leading to the Puerta Del Sol, but the dispersed throngs quickly reassembled. In some quarters considerable anxiety has been felt as to the outcome of this evening, for rumors have been circulated that the agitators had selected tonight for the beginning of an organized outbreak. DISORDER AT A FUNERAL. As was anticipated, the funeral of Don Ramon de Campomanes this afternoon was attended with riotous disturbances. The weather was beautiful and crowds gathered along the route taken by the funeral cortege, which included the members of the academy and the ministers of justice and public instruction. Gendarmes and mounted guards were stationed at strategic points. Considerable disorder marked the passage of the procession, but the troops, who were in readiness, prevented any very formidable outbreak until the end of the city was reached. At that point, however, the demonstrators, who included many students, raised the cry, "Long live liberty!" and, having broken up into small parties, proceeded to various parts of Madrid to renew the demonstration. One band of students began to stone a convent and the police were compelled

In the evening fresh riots took place at several points. The gendarmes charged with drawn swords and a number were wounded. These were carried pnarmacles and cafes. The demonstrators replied to the charges of the gendarmes with showers of stones. Altogether some thirty arrests were made, including a military officer, whose arrest resulted in a protest by his brother officers, the matter be ing referred to the captain general. In the Rue Montera some serious stone throwing occurred. Flower pots and other at policemen, several of whom were in-

The authorities have warned the newspapers that they must abstain from criticisms of acts of the royal family or the publication of news or comments calculated

During the afternoon the ministers held an important council. The evident intention to deal severely with offenders against public order seems to be having a most salutary effect. The strong aggressive evening resulted in quiet during the latter part of it, and Madrid just before midnight when this dispatch is filed, is calm, the guards having been almost entirely with-

Effervescence continues, however, at Barcelona and Grarada, where the gendarmes have been reinforced. At Malaga anti-Clerical demonstrators stoned a newspaper office and a policeman was wounded

At Saragossa and elsewhere there was serious rioting to-day, convents and the residences of the clergy being attacked

At Saragossa one rioter was killed. STRIKE OF STUDENTS.
